MECHANICAL DESIGN COURSE AT WEBER ACADEMY

OGDEN, Nov. 20 .- The Weber acadmy has instituted a course in mechanteal design for the purpose of giving to young men an opportunity of securing a liberal education. It is not intended for the poor nor the rich, nor sections of society, but for any and all who are earnestly seeking technical education. Mr. S. A. Shreevs of the firm of Shreevs & Madsen, architects, has charge of this course, and he firmly believes that in time this department can be made one of the best west of the Rocky mountains. The greatest stress is laid on getting the student to a stress is laid on getting the student to a ing a liberal education. It is not incan be made one of the best west of the Rocky mountains. The greatest stress is laid on getting the student to a stage where he can draw well, be neat and exact in the various mediums, pencil, pen and wash drawings. No student can advance to the problems in design who is not capable of making a good can advance to the problems in design who is not capable of making a good drawing with neat lettering. The compositions are drawn out and rendered in India ink, teaching the students color values. From the very beginning even in frawing out the problems, the students required to design making, compositions of fragments of the problems, ample leaway being given him for exerting and exercising his originality. Small problems are given him for which use is made of simple projections as elements of composition. This course is usually into two parts; mechanical deelements of composition. This course is divided into two parts; mechanical de-sign and modern construction. Four hours per week are given to this work during the first semester, of which one hour is given to modern construction.

The domestic science girls visited Peery's mill Thursday after school. At the present time they are studying the process of flour making.

The next number on the lecture course will be the famous Whitney brothers, who will appear Wednesday, Nov. 24. Their program is most popular. I abounds in mirth and will be one of the est entertaining numbers on the course.

NEGRO HELD FOR FORGERY.

OGDEN, Nov. 20 .- Officer O. H. Mohlogden, Nov. 29.—Officer O. H. Mohl-man returned from Boise, Idaho, Fri-day, bringing with him David Woods, a negro, to answer to the charge of lorgery. The complaint against Woods is that he forged the name of John T. Bitter to a check drawn by H. I. Grif-fin in favor of Ritter. The forgery was committed by indorsing the check in the back in Mr. Ritter's name. While the officers are glad to land

While the officers are glad to land Woods in jail, with the hope of ulti-mately bringing him to justice for the alleged forgery, they also feel they have captured an important witness to the murder of Officer Riley in Sait Lake a few weeks ago. Woods is suspected of being the negro who was associated with Driscoil and Kennedy in certain rebberies and thefts committed in Ogden a short time ago, and that he is the negro who stood across the street as a lookout in Sait Lake when Officer Riley was shot down.

HUNTSVILLE LOSES SUIT.

OGDEN, Nov. 20.—Judge Howell of the district court rendered a decision Friday afternoon in favor of the plaintiff in the case of the Electric Supply & Fixture company versus the municipality of Huntsville. The city of Huntsville, by its mayor, ordered certain electrical work done on a transmission line from the Utah Light & Rallway company's dam to the city. The plaintiff company did the work and has been unable to collect for it, hence the suit.

WORK ON NEW THEATER.

WORK ON NEW THEATER.

OGDEN, Nov. 20.—An immense steel girder was received Friday at the Ogden theater, weighing 8,000 pounds. This massive beam, which is 52 feet long and 4 feet wide, will be hoisted to the top of the building and the balconies in the theater will be suspended from it. There will be no posts in the auditorium to interfere with the view and therefore every seat in the house will be a good one. Those who have seen this great steel beam, feel that they will be more than willing to trust to its strength to hold up the balconies. The work on the building is moving forward as rapidly as possible and a large gang of plasterers is sible and a large gang of plasterers is now busy on the interior of the audi-

BRIGHAM CITY PIONEER LAID TO REST

(Special Correspondence.)

BRIGHAM CITY, Nov. 19.—Lacy Ann Olney Nichols, wife of the late Bishop Alvin Nichols, died at her home

Ill., when first the Saints began to gather there. As a young girl, she was well acquainted with the Prophet

Joseph Smith, and always bere a faithful testimony to his divine mis-sion. In 1847 she became the wife of Alvin Nichols, and they came west in 1852 with her father's family, walking across the plains. They moved to Brigham City in 1858, where she has resided ever since. She is the mother of nine children; seven of them are till living. Funeral services were held in the Second ward meetinghouse this afternoon at I o'clock, and were very largely attended. Many beautiful tributes were paid to her memory.

POLICE COURT CASES.

BRIGHAM CITY, Nov. 19.—Wednesday evening when Dr. A. W. Ensign came across the street from his office he noticed a large bird sitting on the top of an electric light pole. He went into Chrishtensen & Knudsen's hard ware store and borrowed a target gun. The doctor, being an expert Nimrod, took aim and down came a beautiful specimen of the grouse family. Some of the doctor's friends went to Deputy Game Warden Heber Walker and told the story, the officer promptly came and arrested the sportsman with the game in his hand. He was taken before Justice J. F. Bowring who gave the doctor a lecture on the crueity of killing birds, especially out of season, Ensign plended guilty and thought it looked pretty serious when his honor sentenced him to pay a fine of $10, and to have his hunter's license revoked for one year. But when the judge sullingly told him that seatence would be suspended during good behavior, he felt so happy that he presented the judge with the bird.

Another case that came up in Judge Bowring's court yesterday was that of a big 250 pound hunter who came in from duckville and after imbibling too freely of Joe's worst, thought he could run the town. After the saloon was closed he demanded more whisky and swore that no officer in Brigham City could arrest him. It required several taps on his cranium by Officer Lilly-white's billy before he decided to quietly go with them. He tried to buy off the officer and the judge when he found they meant business. He was told that he was mistaken in his locatold that he was mistaken in his loca-tion this was Brigham City and not Salt Lake City so he pleaded guilty and was fined $10.

RECENT DEATHS

MURDOCK, E. M.—At Charleston, Utah, Nov. 13, death claimed Esther M. Davis. She was born in eastern Canada. March 13, 1838. Her father, Franklin Judson Davies, with his wife and four small children, started for Utah in 1850. The mother fell a victim to cholera on the plains, and "Aunt Esther" had to take her place as best she could at the age of 13. In 1857 she was married to N. C. Murdock, and nine children were born to them, three of which survive her; also 26 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. She was a loving mother and neighbor, and has well carned her reward as a nurse among the sick, without money or price. Impressive services were held in the ward house, and though the flowers in her path of life were few and far between, the elegant white casket was densely covered with well merited, beautiful flowers.
